CONSTITUTION AND DECORUM

OF THE

ALACHUA ASSOCIATION, FLA.

We, the Churches of Jesus Christ, who have been regularly baptized upon a profession of our faith, are convinced, from a series of experience, of the necessity of a combination of Churches, and of obtaining a correspondence, for the preserving of a federal union amongst all the Churches of the same faith and order.

1. We believe in one only true and living God, and that there is a trinity of persons in the Godhead—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; and yet there are not three Gods, but one God.
2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.
3. We believe in the fall of Adam, and the imputation of his sin to his posterity; in the corruption of human nature, and the impotency of man to recover himself by his own free-will ability.
4. We believe in the doctrine of Election.
5. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God, only by the righteousness of Christ imputed to them.
6. We believe that all those who were chosen in Christ will be effectually called, regenerated, converted, sanctified, and supported by the Spirit and power of God, so that they shall persevere in grace, and not one of them be finally lost.
7. We believe that good works are the fruits of faith, and follow after justification, and that they only justify us in the sight of men and angels, and are evidences of our gracious state.
8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment, and the happiness of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.

And as for Gospel order:

1. We believe that the visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful persons, who have gained Christian fellowship with each other, and have given themselves up to the Lord and to one another, and have agreed to keep up a Godly discipline, agreeable to the rules of the Gospel.
2. We believe that Jesus Christ is the great Head of his Church and only Lawgiver, and that the government is with the body, and is the privilege of each individual, and that the discipline of the Church is intended for the reclaiming of those Christians who may be disorderly, either in principle or practice, and must be faithfully kept up, for God's glory and the peace and unity of the churches.
3. We believe that Water Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, are ordinances of the Lord, and are to be continued till his second coming.
4. We believe that true believers in Jesus Christ are the only subjects of Baptism, and that immersion is the mode.

5. We believe that none but regularly baptized Church members have a right to communion at the Lord's table.

6. We believe that it is the duty of every heaven-born soul to become a member of the visible Church, to make a public profession of his faith, to be legally baptized, so as to have a right to, and to partake of the Lord's Supper, at every legal opportunity through the whole course of his life.

7. We believe that no minister has a right to the administration of the ordinance of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, only such as are regularly called and come under the imposition of the hands of the Presbytery.

Having laid down a summary of the faith and order upon which we intend to associate, we therefore propose to mention, for the Decorum of our Association, the following plan or form of government:

ARTICLE 1. Those members who are regularly chosen by the Churches in our Union shall compose the Association.

2. The members so chosen shall produce letters from their respective churches, certify their appointments, together with their number in fellowship, those baptized, received by letter, restored, dismissed, excommunicated, and dead, since our last Association.

3. The members thus chosen and convened shall be denominated the Alachua Association.

4. This Association shall have no power to Lord it over God's heritage, nor by which they can infringe upon any of the internal rights of the churches.

5. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk, who shall be chosen by the members present.

6. If new churches desire to be admitted into this union, they shall petition by letters and messengers, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and it shall be manifested by the Moderator giving the messengers the right hand of fellowship.

7. No church in the union shall have a right to more than two messengers, till she shall exceed one hundred members, and then she shall have a right to an additional messenger, for every fifty after the first hundred.

8. Every query sent to the Association, by any church in the union, shall be read and put to vote by the Moderator, whether it shall be debated; and if there be a majority for, it shall be taken up and investigated; but if not, it shall be withdrawn: Provided always, that those be first considered which affect the union of churches.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the observation of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

10. Every member who speaks in debate shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator, and shall not be interrupted while speaking, except he depart from the subject.

11. No person shall speak more than three times to the same query, without leave of the Association.

12. There shall be no talking or whispering in the time of a public speech, nor reflections cast upon the speaker.

13. No member shall absent himself from the Association, without leave of the Moderator.

14. If any member shall break the rules of this Decorum, he shall be immediately re-proved by the Moderator.

15. It is the business of this Association, first, to provide for the general union of the churches; second, to keep up a correspondence with those Associations of the same faith and order, that a chain of communication may be preserved amongst the churches; thirdly, to give the churches the best advice they can in matters of difficulty; and, if the communion should be broken between any of the sister churches in the union, to enquire into the cause of the breach, and use their best endeavors to remove the difficulty; but if the breach cannot be healed, to withdraw from any church or churches whom they shall look upon to be unsound in principle, or immoral in practice, till they be reclaimed; fourthly, to admit any of the brethren in the ministry as assistants, if they shall judge it to be necessary; fifthly, to appoint a Secretary, to keep a book, and regularly to record the proceedings of every Association, and to see that he is satisfied for his trouble; sixthly, to have the minutes of the Association read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and clerk, before the Association rises, and have them printed, if they think proper; seventh, to amend this form or plan of government at any time when the majority of the union shall deem it to be necessary; eighth, to adjourn to any time or place they may think to be most proper.

CIRCULAR

PREACHED IN THE LORD: In this our Circular Letter, we beg leave to call your attention to the command of the Great Head of the Church to his Apostles, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature." (Mark, xvi. 15.) And we are furthermore commanded to be "doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving our own selves." (James, i. 22.) Let us, therefore, brethren, aim at the honorable position occupied by the Apostle James, when he could say to his enemies and the enemies of truth, "Show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works." (James, ii. 18.) Then, beloved brethren, let us individually examine ourselves, whether we are coming up to the full discharge of the duties we owe to God and our possible fellow men, remembering that "there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave, whither we go," and let us not flatter ourselves that this work will ever be accomplished otherwise than "as the Lord devised, and has ever pursued, viz. by the prayers and labors of his people. . . Although it is his determination and decree that the Gospel shall be fully preached to every tribe and nation, yet is this work to be accomplished through the instrumentality of his people.

our blessed Lord mean, when he told his disciples that they were the light of the world, and the salt of the earth? Is it not obvious that in that language he made them instrumentally the means of enlightening and preserving the world? Shall we then, dare to keep that light hid? Nay, rather let us place it as a beacon upon a rocky shore, that its light, streaming abroad upon the waters, may enlighten the way to the port of endless life.

Permit me to suggest to you the great importance of union and brotherly love, in all our efforts for the prosperity of Zion. Reason, as well as the words of our blessed Lord, teaches us that a divided house cannot stand. Let a prudent and becoming zeal characterize all your operations as churches. Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together, and by mutual advice, counsel, and co-operation, strengthen each other's hands and encourage each other to every good word and work. The neglect of many in attending the conferences of the Church, is an evil of sufficient magnitude to deserve at least passing notice in this place. Allow me to ask, dear brethren, how are we to feel a proper interest in the operations of a body whose business meetings we even occasionally omit to attend? Let us rather imitate the pious Israelites, who abandoned their farms and flocks three times each year, and at the command of God took long journeys to the temple, that all their males might, according to the commandment, appear before God.

Finally, if our plain but affectionate exhortations shall find a lodgment in your hearts, we trust you are ready to say, "And what shall I do?" To this question we reply, what it is certainly not the duty of every one to go abroad to preach the Gospel, or even to assume to ascend the sacred desk, but let each one obey the divine injunction, "Neglect not the gift that is in thee; whether it be a gift for preaching, or prayer, or exhortation, let it be diligently employed, for the glory of God and the good of immortal souls."

And now, my dear brethren and sisters, a few words to you. Shall we not attend to the duty we owe to God, and enable his ministers to read the blessed Word, that they thereby may be prepared to give saint and sinner his portion of meat in due season? There are many of God's preachers who are under the solemn charge to preach the Word that they are poor men, and who have families, and some of them have large families, and are very poor; and shall we, as churches or congregations, call them or call for them, and not consider their poor wives and children, when every care comes upon their poor unfortunate wives, who mourn the loss of their dear husbands, when so often gone, and oft when it is the will of God to bring back their husbands to their wives and children, weakened and worn down with fatigue, and who as quick as or before they can well bear it must go to work for their families? Their families are dear to them, and it is a grief to their minds to see them suffer through their neglect. But they are God's servants; they must forsake all and preach the Gospel; yea, leave their wives and children, and attend to what God has enjoined on them. And now, brethren, let us consider, for a little while, that time have ministers to read who have to attend three or four churches.

and their families depending on their labor for support? Oh, brethren, if you could hear the moans of the ministers of Jesus in silence—of the great, important work that they have enjoined on them—and how unprepared they often feel to feed the flock of God with the sincere milk of the Word, when they have not had the opportunity of reading the Word and meditating thereon! Oh, brethren, let us not seal up the Word from us and our children! Let us not “muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn!” Do not let your ministers mourn by your neglect. If we are poor, let us give according to our ability, and not grudgingly, for “the Lord loveth the cheerful giver.” Let us take the Word for our guide, and the Lord enable ministers, and brethren, and sisters, to live in the discharge of their duty, for Jesus sake!

Finally, brethren, farewell. Live in love; and the God of peace grant that your whole spirit, and soul, and body, be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen!
